MAN LOSES 150,000 MEN Game Wrecks New England Shipping

OLD PAIRS FEAR FOR GAME

Harvard is the favorite over Yale for the big game tomorrow, the odds ranging from 10 to 7 to 10 to 4, although the Yale supporters at New Haven are covering all the Crimson odds and freely giving 5 to 10 and even money.

Betting has seldom been as heavy around the college and in the law school, where Yale men are numerous. Much of the Yale money was placed on even terms, but some of it went at odds of 5 to 4 on Harvard.

Harvard is down near the scene of battle. The college part of the nation is slowly moving toward New Haven, and despite weather bureau threats of snow and rain and cold, interest in the big football clash between Harvard and Yale tomorrow is greater than ever it has been before.

70,000 TO TAKE IN BIG GAME.

More than 70,000 people, the greatest crowd that ever watched a football game or any other sporting event, will be on hand in the new wooden bowl when the whistle blows and the husky Red line will clash against the powerful Blue line. Two smashing good teams, coached to the utmost, trained in this new game of football, which gives spectators something to thrill about other than the games and the crowds and the general excitement, will provide the greatest outdoor entertainment this country has ever known.

For days now the college hosts of the entire country have been pouring to the East. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been or will be spent just for the sake of watching some twenty-two college athletes pull and tear and push each other around on the cleat-cut, lime-timed gridiron.

COUNTRY MAD OVER FOOTBALL.
The country has simply gone mad over football, and naturally the

Find Body in Ruins of Readville Fire
Workmen engaged in tearing away the ruins of a rooming house in Readville today came upon the right body of a man who evidently lost his life in the fire which destroyed the building. The body was found in the ruins of the building and was identified by the coroner. The body is believed to be that of a young colored man, and made inquiries about being allowed to sleep in the rooming house in the evening before the fire.

Lift Embargo on Canadian Meats
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The secretary of Agriculture today signed an order lifting the quarantine which had been placed on Canadian meats because of the foot and mouth disease. It was also stated at the department that the quarantine on the northern peninsula of Michigan now would be lifted.

REPORT SIX INDICTED IN SULLIVAN GIRL TRAGEDY

Miss Ruth Devenney, the Cambridge girl who testified before the grand jury in the Sullivan girl case.

HOULTON, Me., Nov. 20.—Six indictments are said to have been returned in the Mildred Sullivan murder case by the Argoshee County grand jury, which finished its investigation of the school girl's tragedy last evening.

Two more arrests are likely to follow the grand jury action, it was reported today, but they will not take place until after the final adjournment. It is whispered that a true bill has been returned against the wealthy Houlton man alleged to have been drawn into the case by the seductions of Katherine Michael and Ambrose Bridge.

TWO OTHER MEN INVOLVED.

It was thought that the grand jury might make a special report in the Sullivan girl's case, but the authorities formulated other plans for reasons best known to themselves. While the state officials are more reticent than ever since the grand jury passed on the case, there are many things which strengthen, rather than weaken, the theory about two other men being involved.

The figure of the prominent Houlton suspect looms large every day. Doubt was expressed by many that the state could implicate him because of his wealth and influence and the adverse manner in which he is alleged to have covered his tracks.

It is even hinted today among

3 DRIVEN ON CAPE SHORE

SIX vessels were driven ashore and the lives of their crews were imperiled in the so-called "Beale's" which swept the New England coast in the first big storm of the winter. At Provincetown, where the schooner "Beale's" was wrecked, the four-masted schooner was blown ashore, and off Kenebunkport, Me., a big three-masted was crushed against ledges.

Captain King of the fishing schooner "Beale's" was washed overboard in the storm at Provincetown, but was rescued by another craft. The "Beale's" stern was smashed against the beach. Other vessels ashore at Provincetown were the "Matthew S. Green," "Natalie J. Nelson" and "Rose Dorothea."

The "Major Richards" was beached at Portland and collided with and sank five small sailing boats. The most thrilling story of the calm wrought by the storm came from Kenebunkport.

Early today fishboats on the coast saw an unknown three-masted flying distress signals. Efforts to launch lifeboats were futile. The waves were fifty feet high.

From the shore the watersmen saw the crew of five men put off from the schooner in a "yak." Five times the crew attempted to make the shore, and five times they failed. Meanwhile the schooner was sent crashing into the ledges, where it was in danger of going to pieces any moment.

Leaving the danger, Lieutenant P. W. Brown of the revenue cutter "Vandalia," which is now out of commission at Portland, quickly engaged the crew and, after a struggle, with the cutter's crew and started for Kenebunkport in the hope of arriving in time to save the lives of the ill-fated schooner crew.

The forty-five-foot motor boat "Verona" was badly damaged in the storm at Portland. Scores of smaller boats were partially damaged or wrecked in the harbor of Portland. At Provincetown many vessels lost sails, masts and bowsprits. The mysterious auxiliary cutter, believed to be a Britisher and which has been reported off the coast for several weeks, was said to be the British converted liner "Carola."

Wilson Won't Attend Thanksgiving Mass

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—President Wilson will not attend the annual Thanksgiving mass at St. Patrick's Church on Thanksgiving, thereby avoiding the criticism which developed last year among Protestant organizations. It is announced that a Massing is being celebrated with his daughter, Mrs. Francis D. Wilson, at the White House, and that it would be the first time in many years that the President had been absent from Washington on Thanksgiving Day.

Von Hindenberg for Merciless War

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—"It is a good but good thing," said General von Hindenberg today to a correspondent in the Reichstag, "that war and armaments do not go together. Continuing the great German leader said, "The merciless conduct of war is, in the end, the most merciful because war is soonest ended thereby."

Unknown Crushed Under Big Boiler

A man known to the police only as "Sam" was crushed under a boiler as he attempted to install in the new home for Little Wanderers in South Huntington avenue, Roxbury. The man is reported to be dying at the City Hospital.

RUSSIANS DRIVEN BACK 60 MILES INTO POLAND

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Evening News today publishes the following dispatch from Copenhagen: "A Berlin dispatch says that military circles calculate the losses of the whole of Germany to date as 1,250,000 killed, wounded and missing. These figures do not include the sick officers and soldiers, the number of whom is reckoned at nearly half a million. These calculations seem to be proved by eighty official German lists carrying 580,000," including the sick the total German losses thus amount to 1,750,000 men.

In an official report stating that severe weather conditions are still impeding operations on the northern front, the French War Office today announces the repulse of three vigorous German attacks in the Argonne region, and the capture of two German 14-inch mortars near Rampscapelle. The big guns were abandoned by the enemy and were taken out of the mud and water by the allies.

There has been a snow storm throughout the region along the Yser canal, and inundations have flooded the region east of Dixmude. As a result there has been a hull both in infantry and artillery fighting.

The official Communique admits a gain for the Germans on the right wing of the allies, the Kaiser's troops having reconquered that portion of Chanvencourt which was blown up a few days ago by German mines.

Following up their recent successes in the eastern war theatre the Germans have vigorously pursued the retreating Russians in Poland, and have driven them back sixty miles, to the River Bug, according to advices from Berlin today. The Germans, in their advance, are approaching the fortress of Novo Georgievsk, north of Warsaw. The retreating Russian force is the army which had advanced into East Prussia from Mowau.

Although this Russian retreat and German advance offer a striking parallel to the operations preceding the disastrous German dash toward Warsaw a few weeks ago, Berlin sees in the situation a serious setback to Russian arms. Petrograd, on the other hand, explains it as part of the consummate strategy of the Grand Duke Nicholas.

While fighting is proceeding along the entire line in Russian Poland, the chief engagement is believed to be along the Buzza River, southeast of Kutno and west of Lodow.

There are actually three separate battles in progress on the German-Russian frontier. It is estimated that on the 250-mile battle front from the Hungarian frontier to the Baltic Sea fully 3,000,000 Russians are engaged against a little more than 2,000,000 Germans and Austrians.

TURCO-RUSSIAN SEA FIGHT.

What actually happened at the sea fight which took place between Turkish and Russian fleets in the Black Sea is today in doubt. The official Russian report says the German-Turkish

Bernard Shaw Answers Attack by Arnold Bennett

LONDON, Nov. 18.—George Bernard Shaw, in today's Daily News, replies to Arnold Bennett's latest attack. Shaw's letter winds up thus: "We who are the multiplicity of many inarticulate citizens who are fighting against the general current of science and reason and silly cinema's selfish profits for a sane facing of life and stable settlement are very few. We have to bring a whole co-silent of war-struck lunatics to reason if we can. What chance is there of our suc-

Boy Who Lost Arms Gets $22,500 Verdict

MONTEBELL, Nov. 18.—A George Dalton, thirteen years old, champion athlete swimmer, who won the V. M. C. A. prize at Hamilton last year, one year after his arms were cut off by a train, was given a verdict for $22,500 against the M. K. & T. and Western Railroad.

The Belgian Relief Fund has reached $100,000, with $116,525 over. Subscriptions are being received by J. H. O'Neill of the Federal Trust Company. Mr. and Mrs. Amory Elliott gave $100, the Cambridge Anti-Suffrage Association sent $523.74 and there were many other contributions.

FAMILY OFFERS NEW PROOFS TO AID BERRENBERG

Members of the family of Reinhold Anton Berrenberg, who is being held at London as a German spy, have visited the Mayor's office with additional documents to show that he was born in this city and associated with the city's life.

The State Department has taken steps to have Berrenberg, according to a letter received by Mayor Curley from Robert Lansing, counselor of the department.

The department has instructed Ambassador Page to take action in the case.

Berrenberg, who has a cousin, Adolph J. Post, living in Boston, was in Germany when the war commenced, and went by way of Paris to London. There he was arrested as a German spy.

His arrest occurred shortly after the execution in the Tower of London of Carl Hans Lody, who had passed as an American.

Berrenberg immediately protested that he was an American citizen, and he was given till November 20 to prove this.

What fate awaits him is somewhat in doubt. His relatives here believe that at what he would be imprisoned, but in view of the fact of Lody there is some alarm for him.

Mayor Curley and former Congressman Peters were asked to urge the State Department to act in the matter, and they did make representations to the department. Mr. Lansing's letter to Mayor Curley today is the reply.

He says Ambassador Page has been ordered to investigate and he suggested that Mayor Curley forward any facts as to the purpose of Berrenberg's present visit to England. The letter reads:

The Honorable James M. Curley, Mayor of Boston, Boston, Massachusetts: Dear Sir—With regard to your telegram of November 13 last the department's reply of November 14 concerning the arrest in London of a German spy of Reinhold Anton Berrenberg, I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of November 14 transmitting a certificate of birth of Reinhold Berrenberg, evidently the same person, in Boston, January 17, 1884.

The department is telegraphing to the Ambassador at London, informing him of the fact of the birth in this country of Mr. Berrenberg (or Berenberg) and instructing him to report definitely as to the charges and evidence against this man, and, if

MOTHER OF 5 ROBBED OF PAY BY A FOOTPAD

Mrs. Alma Holmquist of No. 14 Palmer avenue, East Somerville, mother of five small children, whom she supports by working out days, was the victim of a snatch thief while waiting hours from work, on Oliver street, Somerville.

When she had reached a spot opposite the house at No. 25 Oliver street, the man, who had previously passed her, jumped from a gateway and snatched at her handbag. She struggled with him, but the thief ran toward Broadway through Glen street.

In the bag was her day's earnings and some small change amounting to $1.52, a pair of working shoes and a head shovel. Mrs. Holmquist reported the case to the police. Her only description was that he was a "young" man.

A second attempt to hold up a woman occurred a few hours later near the vicinity of Grant and South streets. Miss Louise Blake, twenty-one, of No. 21 Derby street was approached by a man, who asked her to hand him a bag.

He made a grab for her handbag, at the same time seizing her other hand. She held to the bag and succeeded in freeing one hand, with which she attempted to punish her assailant. Her cries brought several neighbors, but the man escaped.

BUGGLAR FLEES AWAITING GUN IN BROOKLINE

The Brookline police are looking for a man responsible for two burglaries in the Abbeville section. The man entered the house of Max Schoorman, No. 1931 Commonwealth avenue, and got as far as the library on the second floor before he was discovered by Mrs. Schoorman.

She called her husband, who got his revolver, notified the police and waited for the burglar to come down. Meantime the man stepped out through a side window, taking with him $150 worth of jewelry.

Half an hour later a man was discovered rummaging a house at No. 1931 Commonwealth avenue, occupied by Albert R. Ellison. He had entered through a bedroom window and was seen by Mr. Lombard, Mr. Ellison's neighbor-in-law. She called Mr. Ellison, who went to call the police, while the burglar jumped out of the window and escaped.

MILES PREDICTS WAR TO FINISH 'WORLD'S LAST'

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18.—In an address at a banquet of the Civic Club here, General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, said:

"The war has only fairly commenced. It must go on until the warring nations are exhausted. No one is able to say how long that will be, but let us hope that when it is all over there will be a general verdict of 'enough—that there will be intelligence enough to ring down the curtain on wars."

"It is to be hoped that out of this war will spring a Congress of Nations, a Parliament of Nations, aimed at world peace, an abolition of the past ages."

CAPTAIN FISH NOT GUILTY OF BURNING BOAT

Captain John A. Fish, who was once convicted of burning his yacht to collect insurance money, but who secured a new trial, was today found not guilty by a jury, which reported after 23 hours' deliberation. He was discharged from custody.

The trial was held before Judge Morton in the Federal Court. Captain Fish lives in New York. His yacht, the Senta, which was insured for $15,000, was burned at Edgewater harbor in October, 1910. The principal witness for the defense, she would have been glad to lend the fish money at any time. William A. Lewis, former Assistant United States Attorney General and former assistant district attorney, conducted the defense and laid stress on the argument that if Fish had been in need of money he could have borrowed on the yacht or from his friends, thus attacking the alleged motive of the crime charged to Fish. Fish was previously defended by Guy A. Hunt, and on conviction was sentenced to five years at Atlanta. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals ordered a new trial because certain evidence of past conduct had been introduced as tending to discredit Fish.

EVERETT GIRL'S DEATH PIT STILL MYSTERY

While preparations went on for the funeral of fifteen-year-old Mildred Parker, which is to take place Sunday, questions were being circulated by inquisitive citizens who demand that the Cushman quarry pool, where the girl was found, should be fenced off immediately and filled in as soon as possible.

Neighbors along Chatham road, Union, Chelsea and other streets in the vicinity of the quarry call the place the "death pool." Seven bodies have been taken from there in the past few years.

Hillford showed herself, in the opinion of Medical Examiner McFetters. The neighbors think that the pool came to Hillford's mind in a moment of mental aberration and that the girl—hardly more than a child—was irresistibly drawn to the gloomy basin of water that lies in the old trap-rock quarry.

Neighbors assert, too, that the pool is a menace to strangers. Open holes between Union and Chelsea streets border the quarry, with all paths leading to the edge of the pit. In some places there is a twenty-five foot drop from the edge of the pit to the water. In other places a steeply sloping bank makes down to the water. At hardly any place is there a safe approach for a person unacquainted with the pit and pool.

MANY SIGN PETITIONS.
The petitions, which are receiving many signatures, are to be presented to Mayor James Chambers. It is thought that they will appeal particularly to the Mayor, for he was personally interested in the search for Mildred Parker and did all he could to hasten the discovery and interment.

Mildred's funeral Sunday afternoon will take place at the Parker home, No. 30 Chatham road. Rev. C. A. LaCouture of the First Methodist Church of Everett will conduct the service. Burial will be in Glenwood cemetery.

Children of the neighborhood, who were playing in the quarry, and sisters, will probably attend the service. The body, which the undertaker will be brought home tomorrow, as even work from the time Mildred left there for the last time in life.

No conclusive motive, beyond the explanation of a mind temporarily unbalanced, has been given to explain why Mildred should end her young life.

HAPPY IN HOME.
"I know of nothing that would cause my girl to commit suicide," said Byron M. Parker, her father. "She had a happy home, and when she left Saturday after supper she was as jovial as could be."

"I cannot believe it," declares Miss May B. Fellows, principal of the Nichols School, which Mildred had attended up to last June. "It seems impossible. I had never thought that she had suffered some temporary loss of her mind."

Miss Fellows said that Mildred's teacher, Margaret Shaw, had been taken out of school on May 1 last, and Mildred a month later. Mr. Parker had said that she needed her own daughter at home to help her and that later she was going to secure Mildred a position. The girl's only employment, however, had been at the Everett square store on Saturdays.

DORCHESTER TUBE IS READY FOR OPENING

Cars will run daily in January through the Dorchester tunnel between Park street station and Davenport street station.

Sixty-one men, mostly members of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, made a tour of inspection of the Park street station and declared the new tube is one of the best in the world.

Specifications have been completed for the next section of the tunnel, according to the Transit Commission. This section will start at Davenport square and run under the Fort Point Channel to the corner of Dorchester street and Broadway, South Boston. Bids for the work will be opened December 15. Work will begin ten days after the contract is awarded.

Railroads to Advance Fares All Over Country

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Material increases in passenger fares throughout the United States will be caused by advances announced by railroads in trunk line territory between New York City and Pittsburgh and in Central Pennsylvania Association territory between Pittsburgh and Chicago and St. Louis. Normally the basis for adjustment is 2 1/2 cents a mile, the present basis generally being 2 1/2 cents.

Within Central Pennsylvania Association territory the new fares will become effective December 1, and in trunk line territory and between the two territories they will become effective December 15.

"It is the supreme moment when we must demonstrate to the world that we will not tolerate a regime of wickedness in our sister-Atlantic country. We prefer to convert our country into a veritable graveyard for our people's wickedness and crime to perpetrate our nation."

General Francisco Villa, with his full of dollars, predominating influence, and exuding poison hatred, has seen the tyrannical repetition to demonstrate that they are faithful patriots. There he is, I repeat, slaughtering his gold corrupting all those men who were susceptible to corruption. Husbands and fathers, the sacred emotion of duty calls upon you to curse those who force all principle of honor and would throw themselves into the hands of treachery to give the death to their country.

OBREGON NOW DECLARES WAR ON GEN. VILLA

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20.—General Alvaro Obregon, commander of the Constitutional army in Mexico, has declared war upon General Francisco Villa. He has also issued the following proclamation addressed to the people of Mexico:

"It is the supreme moment when we must demonstrate to the world that we will not tolerate a regime of wickedness in our sister-Atlantic country. We prefer to convert our country into a veritable graveyard for our people's wickedness and crime to perpetrate our nation."

NEW CAPITAL SET UP AT QUERETARO BY GENERAL VILLA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The city of Queretaro, Mexico, which has been occupied by the troops of General Villa, was today proclaimed the provisional capital of Mexico. This action was decided upon yesterday at a brief session of the Aguas Calientes convention, which then adjourned the appointment of a committee of twenty-one to administer the republic's affairs pending the establishment of general elections and his government at Mexico City.

Colonel Roque Gonzalez Garza is head of the committee of general elections and the committee will leave for San Luis Potosi this afternoon and thence proceed to Queretaro to set up the new government.

There are three capital cities in Mexico. They are Mexico City, which has been the capital of the French, the State of Vera Cruz, where General Carranza has taken up his quarters, and Queretaro.

Administration officials today declared themselves pleased with the prospect of mediation of the factional differences in Mexico by the Brazilian nation. Mediation would mean a cessation of hostilities while negotiations were in progress, thus giving Mexico another chance to work out her destiny peacefully.

It is noted that the American owners, who were surrounded and captured by the forces of General Carranza near the Nelson Morris Co. mills in Mexico, have been sent to round up cattle with permission of General Villa. Troops have been sent to exterminate the cattle.

Bad Teeth Cause Crime

So says the President of the New York Juvenile Society. So say many great criminologists.

MRS. POLLARD WROTE FAMOUS POISON PEN LETTERS, SHE ADMITS

Mrs. L. Nelson Pollard, Who Pleaded Guilty to Two Poison Pen Indictments, Solving the Mystery of Elizabeth, N. J.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Anna J. Pollard is to be sentenced in the United States Court of Quarter Sessions at Elizabeth, N. J., on November 27 for writing "poison pen" letters to Mrs. Mary Ann Putnam and Mrs. L. Nelson Pollard. She pleaded guilty to indictments charging her with these letters. The indictments and the "poison pen" letters for the defense caused all the more sensation because Mrs. Pollard is the woman who was acquitted last Spring of writing similar letters to Mrs. Charles Jones and other women prominent in Elizabeth social life. The Court of Quarter Sessions, presided over by Judge Connolly, was packed when it became known that Mrs. Pollard herself would appear to plead.

She arrived late accompanied by her husband, Samuel L. Pollard, and her son, Samuel L. Pollard, Jr. As she left the automobile she was heavily veiled and wore a long raincoat. She remained veiled in the court room. The proceedings were very brief. Indictments were read charging her with writing improper letters to Mrs. Mary Ann Putnam and Mrs. L. Nelson Pollard. There was a little flurry in the court room, followed by a buzz of excited whispering, when he pronounced the plea "non vult." Judge Connolly set the day of sentence, 30.

Mrs. Putnam is the wife of Gracie G. Putnam. The family is one of the most prominent in Elizabeth. Mrs. Putnam is also well known in society. It is said the letters they received were hand-printed with a lead-pencil and signed "Friend." The letters to Mrs. Charles Jones which caused the first accusations against Mrs. Pollard were written on a typewriter.

Children's Play Head Hurt at Rehearsal

U. S. ITALY IN DECLINE IS EXPERT VIEW

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Experts conducted last year by the Life Extension Institute indicate a startling decline in Italy, and an enormous increase in degeneracy, and the blood, heart and other organs. Thousands of Americans have registered with the institute in indication of their desire to prolong their lives, it was learned today.

The institute, located at No. 25 West Forty-fifth street, was founded a year ago, and includes in its directorship former President Taft, chairman, F. H. L. Gough, Frank A. Vanderbilt, Robert W. DeForest, J. M. P. Pittenhouse, president, and Dr. Eugene Elynn Kirk, director of hygiene.

President Pittenhouse and Dr. Kirk gave a preliminary survey of the results of their experiments.

There has recently been completed the examination of 1,500 employees of banks and trust companies who would be placed in the preferred class by insurance companies. The average was fifty years.

It is apparently temperate, their incomes sufficient to give them comfortable homes and the best of food.

Yet 55 per cent of these men need treatment or medical supervision for diseases of the heart, arteries, kidneys or showed symptoms that indicated the approach of these diseases.

"These things show why the world has plunged into the thick of the fight for human salvation," declared Mr. Pittenhouse.

"After we have treated thousands of persons by inducing them to submit to thorough physical examination and advising them to the weak points in their machinery. Thirteen per cent of the men examined had already incurred or progressive thickening of the arteries. Twenty-seven per cent of the 15 per cent were under thirty years of age."

"What is the basic cause of this condition?" Mr. Pittenhouse was asked. "Just this," he replied. "People drink too little fresh air and their gastric secretions are food."

Draws Pond in Hunt for Mrs. Springer

MARLBORO, Nov. 20.—Thomas H. O'Halloran today ordered the water of Fort Meadow pond to be drawn off, in search for Mrs. Walter C. Springer of No. 134 Church street, the club and church member who has been absent from home since last Tuesday night. The pond water is low now, but there are twenty-two depths in places. The officials planned to draw the water this afternoon, by opening the head gates to Maynard pond, which is fed by Fort Meadow. A Clinton cove is being investigated.

George Willard of the town says she saw Mrs. Springer on Clinton trolley Wednesday night.

Girl Awarded $375 for Bite by Horse

Mary G. Decker, an eighteen-year-old girl, was awarded damages of $375 by a Suffolk jury today against the American Express Company. The horse bite the girl's arm.

Decker testified that, on November 13, 1912, she was walking on Mason street on her way home from work. As she passed the express hitch she raised one hand to her head. The horse thrust its head forward and bit her hand, lacerating the flesh and causing severe pain.

Decker was introduced tending to the girl's father, the girl's father, Arthur C. Decker.

Farrar Scores New Triumph as 'Carmen'

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A new Carmen was born to the opera world last night at the Metropolitan Opera.

The event was the long looked for historic role that has made some of the great names on the operatic stage.

There was an immense audience when the opera rose on the Spanish scene in front of the cigarette factory, and there was no doubt of the friendliness of the audience when the scene opened.

The clubhouse of the Oakland A. C. in Knowles street, Roslindale, was destroyed by fire early today. The fire is believed to have been incendiary.

Phonograph dealers they melted burning oil when they arrived on the scene, and an investigation is under way. Twenty-five young men of Roslindale belong to the club. They recently had trouble with a neighbor. Several trophies, won by members of the club, were burned. The damage is estimated at $200.

Find Taunton Man's Body in Bushes

TAUNTON, Nov. 20.—The body of Joseph Blay, forty-four years old, for many years a foreman employed by the Vicer Stove Company in Taunton, was found today in a clump of bushes behind the road at Oakland, eight miles from his home.

Blay was last seen leaving his boarding place on Monday, saying that he was going to visit his friends on the Cape for a few days.

Yello, a brother of Fred Yello, the Boston boxer, found the body.

Say Carranzistas Are Leaving Capital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Consul-General Sullivan at Mexico City today telegraphed the State Department that the Carranzistas appear to be evacuating the Mexican capital.

SULLIVAN DEFENDS BILL TO SHAVE THE DOCTORS

Two views of Dr. Francis Donaghy, showing prominent medical man with and without whiskers.

Whiskers on Medical Men a Sanitary Outrage Says Legislator.

"A man with whiskers or a mustache can't keep from flinging them at you," said Representative Lewis H. Sullivan today, in defending his bill, introduced yesterday, which would require every doctor and dentist to sacrifice their "braute appendages," quoting the language of the bill upon the anti-septic altar.

And Representative Sullivan went on to tell how he means to push to the limit this bill, which has already aroused widespread opposition among the members of the medical and dental professions.

"Beards and mustaches are sanitary outrages," declared Representative Sullivan excitedly. "They have no place in modern medicine. Yet there is no better evidence of the inertia of the medical profession, and its death in accepting modern ideas than the fact that a large proportion of medical men mar their countenances by cultivating some facial adornment."

YOUNGEST GRANDPA. Mr. Sullivan has been in the Legislature several times, and though a young man of only forty or thereabouts, has the distinction of being a grandfather. The youngest grandfather the Legislature ever boasted.

Mr. Sullivan introduced his bill valiantly for a bill to abolish the "braute" feature of the "modern" doctor. It is shown in the Legislature as a member who never shaves.

He said he was not a doctor, but he was a grandfather. He said he was not a doctor, but he was a grandfather. He said he was not a doctor, but he was a grandfather.

Vaccination and Starvation Don't Feaze T. Atkins

MANCHESTER, Eng. Nov. 20.—The Manchester Guardian quotes the following passage from a soldier's letter as "an other evidence of the cheerful fatalism of the Britisher."

"We are going strong. At first we had a day or two of starvation. Then vaccination. Next inoculation. Some have had malaria. We're going soon, and some of us will meet annihilation. What of it?"

HINT PLOT WAS FINANCED BY RICH HOULTON MA

The full story of how that confession was procured cannot be disclosed until the trial, which is not expected to take place until early in December, owing to a crowded civil and criminal docket. It is known that the authorities had to keep tight after Miss Mieland all the time and that in the confession obtained at her home had been a confession that she had been paid money for her testimony.

Another witness yesterday was Joseph Willard of Presque Isle, who said he saw the car on the night of the slaying. He has talked the authorities into a search of the area. Willard saw Dr. Dudley hastening through the alley behind Dr. Dudley's office on the night of the slaying. He saw the car on the night of September 3—when the prosecution claims the operation was performed. Willard said he saw Michael and the girl patient in a car parked in an automobile by Dr. Dudley's office. He said he saw the car in the driveway of the North's house, where she was staying since the first day of the slaying. Tuesday, with Michael, girl.

CHILD'S TONGUE
BECOMES COATED
IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

Children who simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with "bilious" liver, get sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or feel naturally. Breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach or colic, or even a "Lam. Mother!" See if tongue is coated.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for constipated adults.

Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company," Refugio, California, and with distinctive ADVERTISING.

Standard Brands of Mens Clothing on Credit for a Week

I REVOLUTIONIZED the good clothes question for men of moderate means, when, through an exclusive agreement with the manufacturers of the leading STANDARD BRANDS of Men's Clothing, I gave the public the opportunity of buying on credit, at cash prices, the highest grade ready-to-wear clothes in America.

Everywhere the labels of these leading STANDARD BRANDS are recognized as standing for unequalled quality—correct styles—careful workmanship.

My agreement binds me to sell on credit the same clothes as the best cash stores and at their advertised cash prices—and charge not one cent more on credit at $1.00 a week than you would pay anywhere else all cash. It is the only agreement of its kind in America.

I am the only credit man in New England that can advertise and sell these leading STANDARD BRANDS of men's clothing.

Eighteen years of continued success and 95,000 satisfied customers are the strongest possible evidences of the satisfaction that both our excellent clothing proposition and our modern business-like square dealing have given our customers.

Remember, that by the use of our famous Order Check you may obtain anywhere any other brand of clothes you wish at the advertised cash price—marked down or otherwise—and pay me $1.00 a week.

Before buying clothing investigate my unique Men's Clothing Proposition—the highest grade nationally advertised clothes in America for $1.00 a week, together with a guarantee of service and satisfaction or a new garment free

$50,000 Gillis—A Boston Boy And His Million Dollar Overcoat

The Marvellous Kuppenheimer Klavicle

A lot of people in and around Boston know Gillis. He started as designer for a clothing manufacturer in this city, and when it became apparent that he had unusual talents in that direction, the great House of Kuppenheimer—always on the lookout for the best of everything pertaining to men's clothes—gladly paid this Boston boy $50,000 for his services, and when you buy a Kuppenheimer Suit or Overcoat you get the benefit of his skill and ability without charge.

Fifty thousand is a lot of money to pay any one man, but with an annual business of between ten and fifteen million dollars, The House of Kuppenheimer can easily afford to pay that price for the best designer in the world—which Gillis undoubtedly is. His services do not make a penny's difference in the retail price of a Kuppenheimer garment.

It has taken Gillis three years to perfect his overcoat masterpiece—the Klavicle—so original in conception and so ingenious in design that no one has been able to copy it; so attractive in appearance and so beautifully finished that it has swept the country from Coast to Coast, from Lake to Gulf—unquestionably the greatest overcoat success ever recorded.

"Klavicle" Overcoats

Of exceptionally fine imported and domestic fabrics, with deep velvet collar of harmonious shade, wide rolling lapels, cuffs on sleeves, patch pockets with flaps, silk yoke and sleeve linings, tailored with the inimitable care and thoroughness characteristic of all Kuppenheimer garments—here and here only at

GREAT ARMY OF FOOTBALL
FOLLOWERS SWARM NEW HAVEN,
TO TAKE IN BIG GAME OF YEAR

ARMY OF HARVARD FOOTBALL FOLLOWERS STORM NEW HAVEN

Fraser reaches its highest point at the annual clash of the two greatest rivals of them all. The excitement of the outcome lends to the interest greatly. Two last couple of years Harvard has gone into the game an almost certain winner. But this year, the "Bluefoot" was on the team and that fact about settled it. The team was in the line of a coaching job and there was not much of a chance in the hands of the 11 supporters.

But in the year in the city of New Haven, the game will not be in the hands of the 11 supporters and attempts a goal from the field.

NEW YALE FOR HARVARD.
Yale has recovered from the dissatisfaction and uncertainty of the past few years in New Haven. The team is now in the hands of the 11 supporters and attempts a goal from the field.

For the Yale game of football passing has started the football world, and the Harvard team is now in the hands of the 11 supporters and attempts a goal from the field.

Setting on to the coaches of the rival is a matter of fact. It is to believe the Harvard team is now in the hands of the 11 supporters and attempts a goal from the field.

Up to this point, the Harvard team is now in the hands of the 11 supporters and attempts a goal from the field.

CROWDS POUR INTO NEW HAVEN.

FEBUOY

It's an Outrage for ANYONE to Go Hungry on Christmas

It is bad enough that anyone should go hungry anytime. And it is an OUTRAGE FOR ANYONE TO GO HUNGRY ON CHRISTMAS.

Why, everybody should have a real feast on that day of days. But a whole lot of men, women and little children will have to do without a feast, will even go hungry this coming Christmas, unless some of us who JUST HAPPEN TO BE MORE FORTUNATE help out.

There is a big wave of prosperity coming to this country as a result of the stoppage of production abroad, and about everybody in this country is going to benefit by it, but it is not here YET.

In fact, the first result of the great war in Europe was to scare business men and manufacturers and upset things a great deal.

A lot of men, and women, too, have been thrown out of employment.

It is only for a time. Soon there will be a greater demand for workers than ever, and at higher wages than before.

The prosperity that is coming is going to enable a great many people to buy their own Christmas dinners in the future, but, unhappily, the Christmas five weeks from today comes in the meantime.

Just stop a minute and try putting yourself in the "other fellow's" place.

Just imagine that you have a wife and two or three children, and possibly your father or mother, or your wife's father or mother, dependent upon you.

Just suppose that you were working regularly up to the time when the war scare hit things.

Just suppose that you lost your job then, like a lot of other people.

Just suppose you had only a little money saved up. The high cost of living has been a very real thing to you. You have faithfully hunted work and your wife has done wonders in making those few dollars last, but you haven't found anything yet, and Christmas is coming.

No Christmas turkey and fixin's in sight, and it looks as if Santa was going to skip his usual visit to the "kiddies" this year.

A tough prospect for the "other fellow," isn't it? And while you have been imagining yourself in his shoes, you have learned that he is just as worthy and deserving as you are yourself. Haven't you?

Maybe it has JUST HAPPENED that you are NOT REALLY in his shoes. Don't you think you ought to share your better fortune with him and his on Christmas Day?

There is an easy way to do it. "Give a basket" through the AMERICAN. Fill it with a Christmas dinner and useful gifts for a family. The AMERICAN will see that these baskets are distributed to the needy. Readers are asked to send in names of families which would appreciate such baskets.

If it is not convenient to get a basket and fill it with dinner materials and other gifts, the money for it will do the good work equally well. The price of a filled family basket is figured at $2. Any such contributions will be turned by the AMERICAN into basket-gifts. Any cash contributions should be sent in without delay. Those who intend to fill and send in baskets will also aid in the arrangements if they will notify the AMERICAN now of such intention, so those in charge of the work may know on what supplies they may plan. Send all cash contributions or notifications about baskets to the Christmas Editor, Boston AMERICAN, No. 82 Summer street, Boston.

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Dear Sir—To decide a business argument we have decided on you as an authority in the matter and will thank you for your decision, which we hope to find in the Boston AMERICAN in the near future.

The problem, no doubt, is puzzling to many small merchants today. Thanking you, I beg to remain, Yours sincerely,

E. M. R.

On an article that costs $10 to produce and is sold for $30 A claims that the profit is 66 2/3 per cent. B claims that the profit is 200 per cent. Which is correct? Also an article costing $1, at what price must it be sold to gain 100 per cent?

Ten per cent. means 10 out of 100. One hundred per cent. means 100 out of 100.

To make 10 per cent. on $100 you must make $10 profit. If an article cost $1 you must sell it for $2 to make 100 per cent.

If you make an article for $10 and sell it for $30 you make 200 per cent.

But when you sell for $30 the article that cost $10 sixty-six and two-thirds of the total amount is profit and 33 1/3 per cent. is not profit. That is to say, the $10 which it costs is 33 1/3 per cent. of the total sale price.

And the $20 profit, 66 2/3 per cent. of the total sale price, being double the amount of the cost price, represents 200 per cent. profit.

Some men become confused because they mix up percentage of profit on the article sold and the PERCENTAGE OF PROFIT IN THE TOTAL SALE PRICE.

Independence and Hope the New Song of the South

By John Temple Graves

The point which the Hearst papers have persistently stressed in their effort and advocacy for the cotton grower of the South is the fact that the South is neither bankrupt nor begging.

The South appreciates keenly the dignified position in which the Hearst advocacy has placed its appeal for the co-operation of the country in this emergency.

And as the representative of these newspapers I desire to emphasize anew the fact that there is neither a white nor an unmanly plea in the attitude of the Southern people. I have yet to see the Southern man or woman who represents in any way the temper and spirit of the people who do not resent the idea that the South is asking or has ever asked aims of the government in this serious financial emergency.

The South felt that it had a right to ask of the government the same financial co-operation which had been so freely extended by this government and by this administration to other conditions not half so urgent and so vital to the general good. The South felt that with the great staple crop, standard all over the world as security, it had a right to expect the same financial consideration extended to Dayton and Alaska and the well-to-do Americans held in Europe by the war. The South resented then, and emphasized powerfully at the November elections, the failure of the Democratic party and the administration to extend the help that was in its power to give.

But the South never for a moment asked or expected the administration to put its hand in the government pocket to give aid upon anything less than a well-secured business arrangement. And the South is bravely and successfully fighting its way out of the present extraordinary conditions, and there is not a man in these limits having the capacity to think who does not believe that out of this temporary tribulation is coming, and is now definitely in sight, the greatest revolution in method and the greatest renaissance in prosperity that the Southern people have known since the Civil War.

To make emphatic this faith and prophecy which I have preached in these generous columns, I presented in our wide-reaching Sunday columns the views of Mr. Clark Howell of the Constitution and of Mr. James R. Gray of the Atlanta Journal, the two leading contemporaries of the Georgian and American, the representative Hearst newspapers of the South. Both Messrs. Howell and Gray confirm a. I emphasize in the strongest possible way the optimistic attitude of this column, and from their long-established towers of observation.

servation join in the gospel of diversified crops, which is logically due to make the South independent and rich.

So far only 9,000,000 bales of the cotton crop of 1914 have been picked. Every day adds to the demand for this staple from the reopened markets of Europe. Germany asks for 75,000 bales a month, which will be greatly increased. Austria is clamoring for Southern cotton as fast as she can get it through the lines. England's mills are an increasing factor. The $135,000,000 loan of the Eastern and Western bankers is nearly complete. As a Candler and the 2,000 bankers of the South are organized for helpful work, and the whole situation only needs a little patience and a little more co-operative friendliness from the business men of the North and West to open the skies of sunshine to the South.

Above all things, the great lesson of diversified farming has taken root. There is almost enough cotton now in the Southern fields to supply next year's demand. Every Southern farmer knows that only a half crop or even less is the case for cotton in 1915, and the wide area of Southern agriculture is staged for food crops everywhere.

When the Duke of Devonshire, a bull of the Royal Harford line, carried off the grand first prize in the International Cotton Show of last year, he put the Western world of foodstuffs on warning that there was a new factor in the field of cattle competition.

When that South Carolina boy grew 212 bushels of corn on a single acre in 1910 and was surpassed in 1913 by an Alabama boy with a record of 233 bushels to the acre, he put the corn belt of Illinois and Missouri on notice that they must look to their laurels of achievement.

When the Georgia girl grew 524 pounds of tomatoes from a tenth of a Georgia acre, she surpassed the highest record of any girl in the North and West.

When Madeline Tilton of Pell City, Ala., made clear by unquestioned statistics that the agricultural prosperity of the South was built of only 54 working days a year by every farmer, he opened wide the eyes of the thrifty and industrious farmers of Iowa and Wisconsin to the unparalleled inducements to come here and reap certain riches from making 250 days out of the 365 in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and the Carolinas.

The practical philosophers of the South are coming to look upon this European war, terrible in its tragedy to the Old World, as a godsend and unequalled blessing to the South.

And they are teaching the Southern farmer to believe this, too.

THE PAINTING

By CONSTANCE CLARKE

YOU were not made for such a frame
Here, only stifled silence sleeps
Away the hours, all is the same
And Time Himself but creeps.

Dust shudders in the very air,
No living soul disturbs the dark,
And ghostly footprints on the stair
Pass down and leave no mark.

You were not made for such a room;
'Tis frame you 'neath a glowing lamp
Where miles of stately daisies bloom,
With buttercups near by.

"And for the United States of America, what would the triumph of Germany mean?"

—Asks the late Lord Roberts, who wrote a remarkable article on the war shortly before his death.
